

Taste of Italy “Cook-off” at Taste Buds Kitchen

What do you call it when about 20 sales professionals get together on a Thursday night and have a cooking competition, some great wine and make new friends? TASTE BUDS KITCHEN NETWORKING EVENT SPONSORED BY BIC GRAPHIC!!! A great time was had by all at the culinary event on November 9th in North Andover.

NEPPA is “cooking with oil” and organizing some great events that really “measure up”! We are so fortunate that BIC sponsored this event, and Pam Clement and Paul Migliorino (left) were able to join us and make the night a hit. Chicken or Eggplant Parmesan, Risotto “Thrown Down” Competition and home-made Cannoli... “Delish”! Congratulations to the winning Iron Chef Team – David and Allison Kennealey (BrandHero promotions), Sandy Klein (Evans Mfg.) and Paul Doucette (Print House), who made the Ultimate Risotto! BYOB was easy for those that do and those that don’t. In true NEPPA style, we challenged the terrific chefs and staffers at Taste Buds in North Andover (in a good way).

If you have FOMO (Fear of Missing Out), you DID, if you don’t have it yet, you SHOULD. Stay tuned for more networking events in your area. Fun, easy, affordable way to get together with the membership and continue to make NEPPA one of the strongest regional associations in the country!!! Ciao! Bella!

Christie Wright, Ellco Promotions

Heather O’Neill, Walker-Clay

Jim Curtis, JC Corporate Sales

Networking Committee Co-chairs