

Chocolate Inn | Lanco adds Multi-line Representative Themco to their Sales Team

Chocolate Inn | Lanco has expanded their sales team throughout the country and announces that Themco will be covering Maine, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Vermont.

Each team will be directly responsible for leading and executing incoming projects for their respective regions. Chris O'Connor, VP of U.S. Sales added, "Since our acquisition of Lanco, Chocolate Inn has experienced great sales growth, and it is extremely important that we continue to spread our message about quality products and aggressive pricing to our customers. I am very excited to be able to add so many great sales people to our team at Chocolate Inn-Lanco to bolster our efforts."

David Miller, President of Chocolate Inn | Lanco expressed, "We are very excited that customer loyalty and confidence in our quality and service has increased sales to justify Chocolate Inn/Lanco being represented as a top 40 supplier. As such we have increased our sales team to include some of the best multi-reps in the industry and are excited for them to further educate and present our broad and innovative offerings."
