

Compliance & Risks Announced as an Official QCA Partner

Compliance & Risks, an end-to-end regulatory solutions provider for companies in the technology, consumer and industrial goods, retail and life-sciences sectors, has been announced by the Quality Certification Alliance (QCA) as one of their official compliance solutions partners.

Compliance & Risks is part of a recent round of new QCA partnerships intended to increase access to responsible sourcing and compliance resources for promotional products industry professionals, particularly those affiliated with QCA via its Supplier Compliance Accreditation Program and Distributor Advocacy Council (DAC).

Serving the promotional products industry since July of 2008, as the promotional product industry's only independent, non-profit organization dedicated to validating industry suppliers' compliance efforts, QCA has been working tirelessly to improve the standards by which industry responsible sourcing practices are judged and accepted by users of the medium.

With advanced capabilities in assessing the risks and opportunities in proposed legislation, Compliance & Risks provides extensive experience and guidance with legal, regulatory, and compliance issues to optimize business' regulatory processes for maximum ROI.
