

HUB Promotional Group's Hub Pen Company Announces Promotion and New Hires

Hub Pen Company is pleased to announce the hiring of Junior Buyer Joe Tessier. In this role, Joe will help process purchase orders for both production and non-production supplies. He also will help to coordinate on time delivery of product, aiding in maintaining stock levels for customer orders.

Joe came to work at Hub Pen four years ago working nights in the QC department, while attending Charlton College of Business for Supply Chain Management. He also assisted the Hub IT department with a number of projects managing customer records and integrating data.

Over the last few months HUB Pen has taken on two new web developers, David Medeiros, Web and Ecommerce Developer and Tyler Hines, Jr. Web Developer. Also Business Systems Analyst Terese Cook was promoted to Enterprise Software Manager.

David Madeiros comes to HUB from corporate Boston where he specialized in back end server code and web applications, and became well versed in programming languages.

Tyler is more involved in front end web development and has been building new pages for the website, and is currently working on a company video page.
