

HUB Pen Company Promotes Joe Tessier to Quality Control Specialist

HUB Promotional Group's HUB Pen company is pleased to announce the promotion of Joe Tessier from junior buyer to quality control specialist. Joe came to work at HUB Pen five years ago, working nights in the QC department, while attending Charlton College of Business for Supply Chain Management.

In his previous role, Joe processed purchase orders for quality and production, resolved stock issues, and delivered vendor reports. He also assisted the Quality Department on numerous projects, such as updating item inspection procedures. In his new role, he will be working to help ensure the Quality Department is running smoothly and efficiently.

Joe is dedicated to HUB's goal of supplying high quality products to the promotional products industry.

"I'm thankful to HUB for providing me with this opportunity and am excited to aide in taking Quality to new heights," said Joe.
