

Shannon Johnson is the Professional Development Coordinator for PPAI and is tasked with the administration of online education/certification programs. Her previous experience includes 10+ years in the real estate industry and she holds a current Texas Realtor's license. Her spare time is spent visiting her four college aged children across the US.